"Under Two Flags" was presented by the Bennett-Moulton Co. at the opera house last evening although this play is not new to the theatre of this city, there was a fair sized audience last evening. The parts were all well taken, those who deserve special mention being Mr. Driscoll, who plays the leading role that of Bertie Cecil, afterward known as Corporal Louis Victory, a French soldier. Mr. Driscoll's impersonation of the role compares very favorably with anything seen here at popular prices. Although Mr. Driscoll is a young man, he has a bright future as a leading man. The part of Cigarette was played by dainty Estelle Plunkett. The little lady was very clever in her part and showed her ability in a charming manner.

Tonight at the opera house the Bennett-Moulton Co. will present a play entirely new to this city, "Shadowed Lives" or "Two College Chums", written by Justin Adams which dramatization of Quincy Adams Sawyer is well known.

All late comers at the opera house to night will be obliged to remain standing in the rear of the auditorium as the management makes it an imperative rule, when playing Shadowed Lives, not to allow anybody arriving after the curtain rises, to be seated until after the play is over. This is owing to the fact that the play is rather unique in the fact that the story commences just as soon as the curtain rises on the first act.
